

MONDAY EVE., OCTOBER 18, 1880.

THE purpose of the Republican Enterprise in its frequent allusion to the "kids" is too plain to be mistaken. The "kids" are too smart to be caught by such chaff.

COLONEL Z. T. YOUNG has removed from Rowan County to Mt. Sterling, where he has formed a partnership with Colonel Van B. Young and Mayor Mitchell, of that place. The name of the firm is Young, Mitchell & Young.

WARE for Judge Thomas—Republican Enterprise.

"That settles it." Of course, Judge Thomas will now feel awfully relieved, and we may expect to hear of his publicly accepting the nomination tendered him by the late "side-show."

"REPUBLICAN victory is in the air," says the Republican Enterprise. Yes, just about like it was a few days previous to the last August election. The air was full of it then, according to our contemporaries, but it didn't materialize. The indications at present are that this "Republican victory" now "in the air" will be struck by a democratic cyclone on the 2nd day of next month, and never more be heard of.

BUSINESS is enjoying a regular boom most all over the country. At Pittsburgh the freight traffic on the railroads has increased to such an extent that a regular blockade has resulted. None of the companies are able to handle the freight, a condition of affairs unprecedented in the railroad history of that place. A Democratic administration hasn't "ruined" the business of the country after all!

"BRER" DAVIS is cunningly courting the support of the "kids." His scheme is too apparent. The "kids" are all sensible fellows,—too sensible to be caught by such chaff. They are Democrats, and they would dishonor their party and dishonor themselves by voting for such an unscrupulous political trickster as George Morgan Thomas. We believe we are not mistaken when we say there are Republicans in this city who think as we do on this matter.

"JUDGE THOMAS is a rugged old oak," says the Louisville Post, "who is best known to Kentucky as the man who drew the United States Attorney's salary without ever doing a lick of work." This is refreshing news for the tax-payers of this district. A salary of $6,000 a year is a fine thing, especially when it can be drawn without rendering an equivalent in work, and that's an old game of Judge Thomas' which he learned when he was Circuit Judge of this district.

THE editor of the Republican Enterprise exposes his jealousy and spleen when he goes to calling names. The "Daily Blatherskite," the "hand-organ," and his reference to "the pewter-plated concern," of Cincinnati, which furnishes us some of our news, may be amusing to himself, and may gratify his insatiable passion in that direction, but we sadly mistake the intelligence of his readers if such nonsensical chaff should prove interesting or entertaining to them. The "pewter-plated concern, of Cincinnati," is one of the largest and most successful legitimate business enterprises in the country. It is nothing else but the American Press Association, which, as a news-dispensing medium, ranks high throughout the country. "Brer" Davis is good at calling names, but calling us names will not make any votes for Judge Thomas. However, if it will add anything to "Brer" Davis' enjoyment of life, he is welcome to keep it up. We shall not ring the "chestnut bell" on him, even if it is an old "game" of his.

No Failing Now.

"Republican victory is in the air," shouts the Enterprise. This is the "blowing" indulged in by our neighbor just prior to the last August election. Billy Dawson was going to do up Dennis Fitzgerald. F. Devine would knock Dan Perriue out in the first round, and so on to the end of the chapter. The election rolled around. Dawson, Devine & Co. "met the enemy" and had the life lammed out of them. The Republican victory vanished in the air. And so will be the 2nd day of next month. All the news points to a Republican Waterloo on that day, and a glorious victory for the Democrats. Such a result is worthy of our most earnest endeavors. The danger lies in over-confidence. Democrats, see that you vote, see that your neighbor votes and see that your neighbor's neighbor votes on the 2nd of next month and the triumph will be all the grander. This is no time for Democrats to falter. Brighten your weapons and close up the ranks for the charge to be made the 2nd day of November.

The "Sick" Judge.

THE Republican Enterprise accuses us of misrepresenting Judge Thomas and wants us to "tote fair." If the State had to pay over $3,400 for special Judges during the six years Mr. Thomas was Circuit Judge, we think the voters of this district ought to know who was at fault. The Auditor's report shows that the State did pay $3,400 for special Judges in this district during the term from 1874 to 1880, when Mr. Thomas was Judge. He was absent thirty-two or thirty-three times during the six years. He may have been kept away by "sickness" but our information is not to that effect. A letter written to the BULLETIN in 1877, from Vanceburg,—Judge Thomas' home,—says:

"It is a known fact here that many times when Judge Thomas is absent from his court to other counties on pretense of his inability to attend to the duties of his office, that he is seemingly well and going through the country attending to his own private business, sometimes in Vanceburg arranging the political views of his party. The people of Lewis are getting tired of this and demand that Judge Thomas shall either attend to the business for which he is paid or step aside and let the people select some one who will."

This letter was written in 1877, when Thomas was not a candidate, and it certainly was not penned for political purposes.

Another rather significant fact brought out by the Auditor's certificate is that Thomas was absent from his post of duty less frequently as the time for re-election drew near. In 1875 seven special Judges had to be chosen; in 1876, nine were chosen; in 1877, five were chosen; in 1878, only two; in 1879, four; in 1880, but two. Such are the facts as shown by the Auditor's certificate. Our readers can draw their own conclusions. We do not care to misrepresent any one. As for Judge Thomas never shirking a public duty, the Louisville Post last week says he is known throughout Kentucky as "the man who drew the United States Attorney's salary without ever doing a lick of work."

CAN it be possible the "grand old war horse" has been waiting to learn where "Brer" Davis stood, before he accepted the nomination for Congress? If he has, the matter is now settled. Brer Davis is "for Judge Thomas," this time.

The Minneapolis Strike.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Oct. 18.—There has been no material change in the status of the switchmen's strike. No further disturbances have been reported since those of last night. The freight is moving in any of the yards except the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul. A large force of special police and detectives are maintained, while the city police have been called up in several instances. A meeting of the jobbers' union of Minneapolis has been called for this afternoon. The result of which will probably be a meeting to the parties concerned in the strike that they shall return to work at once, and that both railroads and switchmen shall agree to arbitrate the difficulty. The railroads have thus far refused to treat with any one except their own men personally. The business men have all determined that there shall be no such paralyzation of business.

Eaten by Hogs.

MOUNT STERLING, Ill., Oct. 18.—Mrs. Greenwell, a widow, aged 70 years, left her home, Tuesday afternoon, between 3 and 4 o'clock. She left from about three-quarters of a mile away, and did not return Tuesday night but nothing strange was thought of. On Wednesday morning did not bring her search was made, and after a time some bones and pieces of bloody flesh were found surrounded by a drove of hogs, that were fighting over them. The remains were identified by scraps of clothing as those of Mrs. Greenwell. It is supposed that the old lady faintled, and that the hogs attacked her before she recovered consciousness.

Entered the Order of Jesuits.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 18.—William Gillespie Walker, nephew of James G. Blaine, has entered the order of Jesuit Fathers at Santa Clara. He is nineteen years old, and has been a student at the college for a year. For some time he has had an inclination to religious life. Young Walker's mother was the favorite sister of James G. Blaine. She was buried on the day that President Cleveland was inaugurated.

Undecided.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—A Boston special says that Gen. Corne has not yet decided to accept the Boston postmastership. He has asked the president for more time to consider the matter. He finds it difficult to abandon some promising financial enterprises in New York in which he had embarked just before his nomination.

Mabel Preston Released.

NEW HAVEN, Oct. 18.—Mabel Preston, the woman arrested in Hartford for complicity in the Wallingford shoe box murder, was rigidly examined by Coroner Mox. A two hours "star chamber session" satisfied that official that the woman could not throw any light on the mystery and she was released.

An Infamous Father.

NEW HAVEN, Oct. 18.—While washing at his wife to assault her, John Landrian had his legs seized by his son, ten years old. He kicked the boy down and poured over him a kettle of boiling water. The boy was probably fatally scalded.

Justin McCarthy's Reception.

BALTIMORE, Mass., Oct. 18.—Justin McCarthy delivered his lecture here to a crowded house. Mayor Raymond presided, and many distinguished citizens occupied seats on the platform. Hundreds were introduced to the distinguished lecturer.

The Gladstone Anagram.

Enemies of the late premier, who are also skilled in doing anagrams, have succeeded in making "the White" a traitor to England's rule" out of the Right Honorable William Ewart Gladstone. It will be discovered upon investigation, that there is no letter "W" in the latter phrase. The word "rule," therefore, must be spelled "rals."

GERMANTOWN FAIR.

Fourth Day a Decided Success—Largest Crows of Any Splendid Exhibition and a Good Time Generally—Premium List—Notes and Personalities.

After the rain and storm of Wednesday, Saturday had been looked forward to as the great day of all, and so it was. The morning dawned clear, cool and beautiful. At an early hour, the grounds presented a scene of bustle and confusion and "coming events cast their shadows before." The band was early in their places, and the splendid "Orchestra" rendered in their happiest style, was loudly applauded. By noon every seat in the amphitheater was filled, the "court-galley" was crowded, and the promenade was completely packed. The day continued cool throughout and overcoats and wrappings were worn most of the day. The dining hall had a great rush, and closed its doors early in the afternoon, unable to feed many who clamored at the entrance. But the bountiful dinners on the ground, spread to the generous people of Mason and Bracken, were sufficient, and no one went away hungry.

The rings in the afternoon were fine and much interest was manifested, especially in the boy's riding match. Everything was orderly, not a single arrest during the fair. The attendance in the afternoon was fully up to that of any day during the fair's history, and is variously estimated at from seven to eight thousand. At 4 o'clock, Hauke's band formed in double file in the arena, each gracefully received a blue ribbon from Director W. F. Smoot, marched around the ring to the music of "Amicitia," formed a circle around the President and Directors, President Forman delivered a neat and appropriate speech, the inimitable "Dixie" rang out and floated away in the distance and the Germantown Fair was over. May time send another such a fair, and send us there to see it. Following is a list of premiums awarded Saturday:
